AUTOMATED PROCTORING

By utilizing artificial intelligence (AI) technology, the system itself records and monitors test attempts using behavioral trackers, time-stamping suspicious moments. Once the exam is finished, the system generates a credibility report and stores the exam footage for the optional subsequent human validation and review.

Real-time Monitoring

- Suspicious behavior is flagged using behavioral trackers
- Marks moments when there are multiple faces in front of the camera, background noise, changing focus to another window
- Automatic screen lock in case of a violation
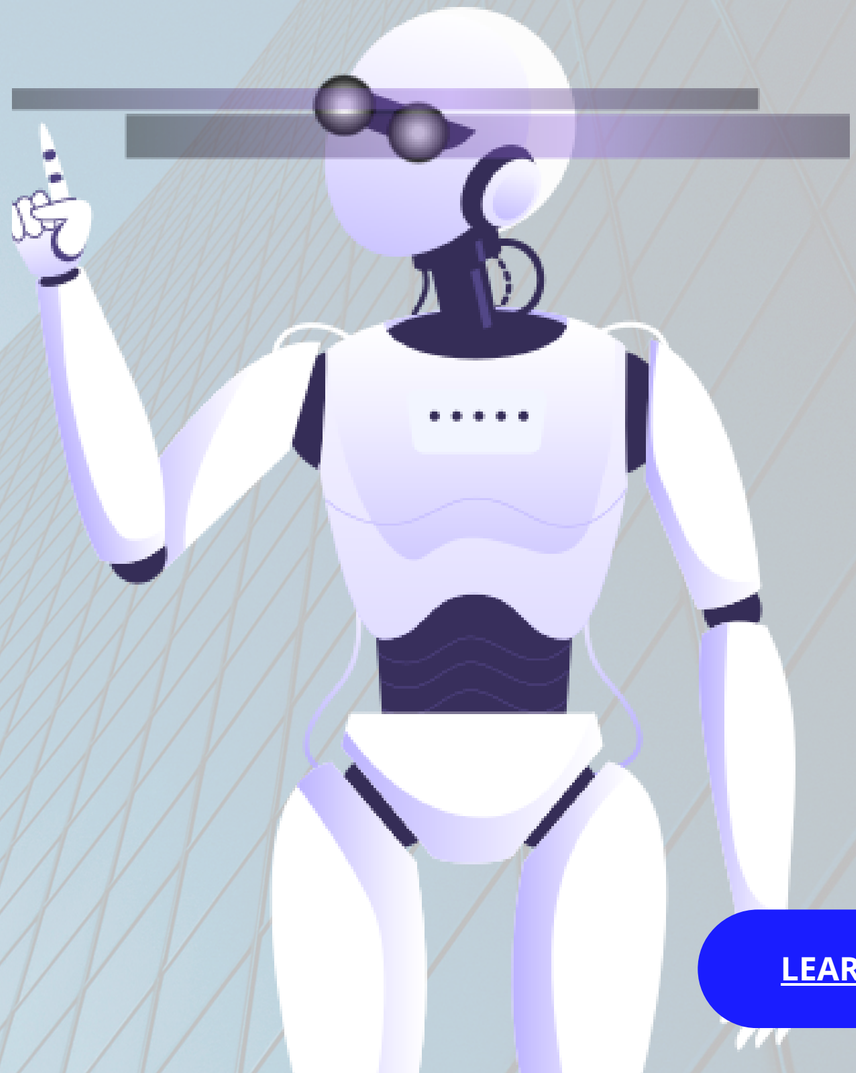
- Credibility report with the score and assessment of candidates' behavior



LEARN MORE

The proctoring system automatically tracks the following events:

- The absence of a human face

  in front of the camera
- Multiple faces in front of the camera
- Exiting the full-screen mode
- Background noise or conversation
- Changing focus to a different window
- Using an additional display
- Disabling camera, microphone

  or screen sharing
- Unrecognized typing patterns

LIVE PROCTORING

Live proctoring is a hybrid model that includes a formal human audit in addition to automated proctoring.

This is the most secure solution that minimizes the chances of cheating to an absolute minimum, ideal for high-stake exams.

Proctors are responsible for

- Supervising the exam in real-time
- Ruling out cheating behavior personally
- Using an automated proctoring system as an additional security layer: behavioral trackers, video recording, and reports generating
- Asking candidates to connect an additional mobile camera for the view of 360°

Live proctoring sessions

The recommended number of candidates that a single proctor can monitor is 16.

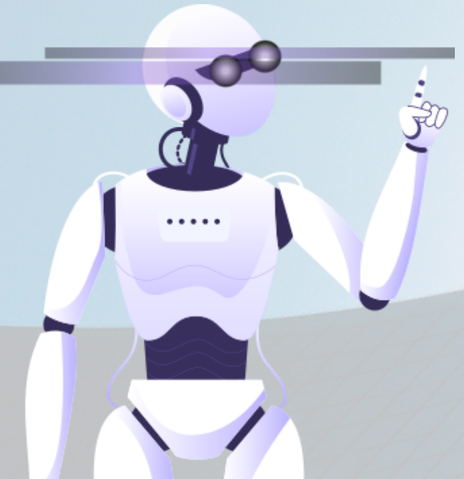
Authentication of Candidates

- Equipment check
- Human face recognition
- Additional ID verification

RECORD AND REVIEW



Test recordings are stored on the cloud and available for additional human review.

Test managers can verify credibility reports generated by the system.

TEST-TAKER’S PERSPECTIVE

- Complete the automated equipment check and allow camera and microphone usage
- Let the system take your photo
- Show your identification document (optional)
- Allow the sharing of your screen when prompted
- Start the test

THE MAIN BENEFITS OF YOUTESTME PROCTORING SOLUTIONS

Convenience and comfort

Students can take exams anytime and anyplace. This method is convenient both for students and test managers since it requires no previous scheduling and allows the option of taking practice tests to help optimize test-taking performance.

Affordability

The use of technology means a significantly lower cost (by 30-40 percent) than human-based approaches, which allows our clients to lessen the financial burden on themselves and the test-takers.

THE MAIN BENEFITS OF YOUTESTME PROCTORING SOLUTIONS

Scalability

With this method, technology is used for self-service and the system architecture allows an unlimited number of tests to be taken simultaneously by an unlimited number of users.

Professional Review and Accountability

The computer or proctor first monitors exam sessions, and other proctors or administrators can afterward review their recordings. Multiple reviews ensure the validity of the exam results.
